DECREES

Art. 1- Research Project

A call is open for a selection procedure on the basis of candidates’ qualifications, possibly integrated by an interview, for the assignment of one “Post PhD” research grant, entitled: “Atomic clocks data analysis”.

Research will be carried at INAF-Institute for Space Astrophysics and Planetology. The successful candidate will work in collaboration with staff of the project.

The research activity will take place within the Galileo for Science_2.0 (G4S_2.0) project for the activities coordinated by the IAPS/INAF of Roma Tor Vergata.

The planned activity is the analysis of the measurements of the atomic clocks aboard the Galileo FOC constellation, with particular reference to the atomic clocks aboard the E14 and E18 satellites which do not follow the expected nominal orbits, but move on orbits of relatively high eccentricity.

During the course of the research grant, the candidate will be supported by specialists who will allow him to acquire the ability to use the data acquired to attempt a new measurement of the Gravitational Redshift and to place stringent constraints on the possible presence of Dark Matter within the Galaxy. If necessary, the activity may extend to the analysis of the data of the atomic clocks of the GPS constellation and to that of the atomic clocks of some ground stations.

The Research Grant, aimed at the specified project, is not thought to satisfy the personnel needs of the Institute or of the project itself, but offers the opportunity of carrying out research activities in the framework of the project to candidates who believe that it can be important for their professional growth.
